Adults

Computer Skills

This is a series of classes for those who are new to computers including English language learners and seniors. Each class covers a different topic:

- Introduction to Using Email
- Introduction to Microsoft Excel
- Internet Safety and Privacy
- Smartphones and Tablets
- Introduction to Using Computers

NOTE: Registration is required.

Elder-in-Residence Visit Kokum Lorette Goulet (Drop-In and Scheduled)

The Edmonton Public Library's Elders in Residence Program (EIR) provides access to an Indigenous Elder and Knowledge Holders for EPL customers. The Elder in Residence hosts biweekly programs and specialty programs centred on Indigenous knowledge and work to ensure that ceremony is an active part of our library system. Through classes, events and ceremonies, we bring together people from all backgrounds to learn about Indigenous culture, protocol and processes. Please see website for requesting a scheduled meeting.

English Conversation Circle (LACE)

Practice your English with others. A group of amazing volunteers are ready to assist with your learning as you discuss topics of interest in a comfortable and friendly environment. English Conversation Circle is part of Catholic Social Services' Learning and Community Enrichment (LACE) program. Call Catholic Social Services at 780-424-3545 for more information. NOTE: Registration is recommended.

English Language Conversation Class

Join our free conversation classes to practice English in a fun and relaxed setting! Build confidence in speaking, improve your listening and writing skills, and learn everyday phrases. Available for all levels, these classes help you communicate naturally and meet new friends along the way.

- Audience level: Open to all levels
- Registration: Registration done upon arrival by Project Adult Literacy Society (PALS)
- Number of participants is limited to 20

For more information, please call Project Adult Literacy Society (PALS): 780-424-5514. NOTE: Registration is required.

Family Centre Drop-In Counselling

Professional private and confidential counselling offered to individuals, couples/partners and families with a therapist from The Family Centre. Single sessions take up to 50 minutes and are offered on a first-come, first-serve basis, so please be prepared to wait or be referred to another location.

Films at the Library

Join us on Wednesday nights and Friday afternoons for a wide variety of films.

Form Completion Help

Completing applications online can be challenging, especially when you are new to English and new to technology. Newcomers to Edmonton can visit an Edmonton Public Library to get 30 minutes of technology help from a community volunteer as you navigate online application forms. NOTE: Registration is required. Your application may take longer than 30 minutes to complete and independent work may be required.

Food For Thought: A Culinary Book Club

Indulge in your passion for literature and cuisine at a unique book club where we combine the love of reading with the love of cooking! Each month, we'll dive into a new book and create simple recipes inspired by its themes. NOTE: Registration is required and there is a $5 charge for this class.

Nihkawi-kewin//My Godmother: A 10-Part Masterclass in Metis-Cree Floral Beadwork

Join local Metis artist, Sharon Rose Kootenay for an extensive, hands-on exploration into the art, design and technique of Northern floral beadwork. During the course, you will learn to make three items, including: a Scissor's Case, a variety of Women's Ceremonial Pouches, and a Fire/Octopus or a Bandler Bag. All tools, beads and supplies provided! Please note, registrants are signed up for all 10 sessions. Learning is cumulative, if you are unable to continue attending sessions (for whatever reason) please notify us as soon as possible.

Learn Downtown: Tiny Acts of Community Gathering as Democracy

We will follow top thinkers on building democracy in this time of polarization. Through our conversation, we will ponder why your tiny local reading club, art posse and walking group matter. The routes of gathering are linked to democracy through relational capital. In a time of seductive misinformation that promotes anger and isolation, gathering and relating in real time with individuals in your local community can have a radical impact. A complimentary lunch will be provided.

NOTE: Registration is required

Life Skills: Rent Ready Certificate Course - Know More, Stress Less

Renting can be complicated. The Rent Ready Certificate Course can make it easier. Take this FREE course offered by the City of Edmonton and its partners to learn skills on how to become a great tenant and navigate the rental market. This 4-week FREE course offered April 15th - May 6th will give you the knowledge and tools you need to find the right and keep the right housing for you. You must attend all four sessions in person in order to get a certificate. Registration is limited to 15 participants. NOTE: Registration is required. To register, visit edmonton.ca/RentReady or call 311. Email zula.romero@edmonton.ca for questions.

Make Tax Time Pay

e4c Make Tax Time Pay (MTTP) is a FREE tax filing program available to individuals and families the Edmonton area with low to moderate incomes.

Third Thursdays with the Writer in Residence

Writing and publishing are challenging endeavors — even more so if you try to do it alone. Come connect with other writers over some tea and coffee at our monthly, informal get together. Vent about your struggles, celebrate your victories, talk about craft, get your questions answered or just unwind with fellow writers.

VOCABULARY CLUB: English Conversation Class

Join our fun English vocabulary and conversation class at the library! This program is perfect for people who are just starting to learn English. In this class, you'll discover everyday English words and how to use them. You'll practise using these words in conversations and other activities. We'll mainly focus on building your vocabulary, improving your speaking skills, and doing some simple reading.

Teens

Teen Gaming: Dungeons and Dragons

Calling all adventurers! Always wanted to play Dungeons and Dragons but not sure where to start? We've got your back. Sharpen your swords, spark your magic, and prepare to do battle with monsters in order to save the realm with the roll of your dice. This class is designed for beginners who want to learn the basics of Dungeons and Dragons. No experience or materials are required. This event is for teens 13-17 years old. This event is registered and has a limit of 8 participants.

NOTE: Registration is required.

Family

Elder-in-Residence, Sharing and Learning Circle with Howard Mustus Jr

Join Howard "Howie" Mustus Jr for a new series of sharing and learning circles held at PĪYĒSĪW WĀSKĀHIKAN. Come for a cup of tea, smudge, have conversation, and connect to culture. This series is open to everyone: all ages; cultures; and experience, and wherever they may be on their learning journeys.

Family Films at the Library

Join us for a family fun movie! EPL has a great selection of children's films for the entire family.

Zine Fest

Join the All Starz Zine Project and Creating Hope Society for their first ever ZINE FEST! featuring young writers and artists from Edmonton and area as well as other local zine makers. Visitors can also try their hand at making a zine at The Cherry Pit Create Centre. Light refreshments and outstanding door prizes are all part of the fun. Please join us!
