

YRCA 2016

24 books.

Who will win? You decide!

Spread the words.

What is YRCA?

- The oldest children's choice award in North America
- Started in 1940 by Harry Hartman, a publisher in Seattle
- Alaska, Washington, Montana, Idaho, British Columbia and Alberta
- Divided into three sections:
 - Junior (Gr. 4-6)
 - Intermediate (Gr. 7-9)
 - Senior (Gr. 10-12)

Young Readers' Choice Award

- Students, teachers, parents, and librarians can nominate titles for YRCA but only kids decide the winners!
- Nominated titles must have been published 3 years before the award year
- Voting begins in March
- Tell us about an awesome book you read at epl.ca/yrca

Picked it.

Read it.

Loved it.

Where do I vote?

Voting

- You need to read or listen to at least two titles in a division to vote in that division.
- Use your bookmark to remember your favourite books and rate them!
- Submit your votes online beginning in March at your school or at your public library branch.
