

TITLE: Privacy and Confidentiality of Customer Information

POLICY: B-2005

COMMITTEE: Internal

PASSED: December 1, 2015

TOPIC: Foundation of Service

AMENDED: October 13, 2015

REVIEW PERIOD: As required

The Board of the Edmonton Public Library (EPL) is committed to the confidentiality of customer use of its facilities, services, collections and website. The collection, use, disclosure and storage of personal information are undertaken in accordance with the Alberta Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act and the Canadian Library Association’s Statement on Intellectual Freedom.

The Library collects personal information in order to circulate library material, to provide services to individual customers and to manage and assess its programs and services, including the use of public internet stations.

The Library does not sell, give away or lease personal information stored in its database. The Library will not disclose a user’s personal information to a third party without the individual’s consent or subject to the following:

- in response to a subpoena, court order or a specific written request from a law enforcement agency to assist in an investigation or as required by law
- there are reasonable grounds to believe that the disclosure:
 - will avert or minimize an imminent danger to the health or safety of any person
 - to a law enforcement agency, to an organization providing services to a minor, or to another public body is in the best interests of the minor
- in keeping with established procedures for recovering Library property, unpaid fees, fines or other charges (e.g. collection agency)
- to respect the rights of parents and guardians respecting minors
- for the purpose of contacting next of kin or emergency response personnel in the case of an emergency

The above provisions apply to employees, volunteers and persons working under contract to the EPL who handle personal information or have access to information systems or facilities where such information is handled or stored.
